

MUCH POLITICAL UNREST IN MEXICO

Reyes' Followers Very Active, but Government Has Situation Well in Hand.

HE'S SURROUNDED BY TROOPS

A Dangerous Element is Called Meetings of Clandestine Lodges of Masons.

Mexico City, Aug. 20.—Special dispatches from various parts of northern Mexico agree that the situation throughout that region is one of much political unrest. Gen. Trevino, the newly-appointed commander of the third military zone, is acting with vigor and decision and during the past two days troops have been moved quietly and swiftly to places where they will be most needed in case of serious disturbances.

The government has the situation well in hand.

Yesterday Reyes left Galeana for the ranch of a friend. Simultaneously troops were sent to the mountains and the latest dispatches say that Reyes is completely surrounded by federal forces. This is believed to be but a precautionary movement by the government.

Today was Reyes' birthday and those who would have him nominated as the possible successor of President Diaz desired to make a big demonstration. Gen. Trevino, however, denied the use of military bands and prohibited the mammoth display of fireworks planned. The meeting was called to take place in the alameda, the public square of the city.

One of the most dangerous elements of the situation is said to be the alleged clandestine meetings of all the clandestine lodges of Masons throughout the Monterey section. It is said these self-styled Masons have pledged themselves to support Reyes.

President Diaz is a thirty-third degree Mason of the recognized branch of Mexico. No general order has gone forth stopping the sale of firearms in Monterey, but none are to be had at any price as the stores have sold out their entire stocks.

REYES SURROUNDED.

Mexico City, Aug. 20.—Gen. Bernardo Reyes, governor of the state of Nuevo Leon, and opposition candidate for the vice presidency, is surrounded by a detachment of government troops in the mountainous region of Galeana. No overt act has yet been committed and it is reported that Senor Reyes is merely being held under surveillance by the federal authorities.

A number of members of the Revista party have been arrested at Torreón, state of Coahuila, and Xochimilco, 10 miles southeast of Mexico City, for holding meetings. They are charged with disorderly conduct.

Today was Gen. Reyes' birthday and a celebration in honor of the event was planned for Monterey.

REYES BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Monterey, Mexico, Aug. 20.—The celebration of the birthday of Gen. Bernardo Reyes passed quietly today and the serenades on the plaza tonight were orderly. No disturbance of any kind occurred.

It has been the custom for years to make this day a general holiday and to decorate the principal buildings throughout the city with bunting and electric lights. All of these features were lacking this time. A private band furnished the music.

Police were numerous throughout the alameda and while no soldiers were seen, the military authorities were prepared for any emergency.

The penitentiary which adjoins the alameda was reported to be filled with federal troops.

SEEKING REYES RECRUITS.

Beaumont, Texas, Aug. 20.—It was ascertained today from Charles Valenzuela, wealthy Mexican of this city, that two agents of Gen. Reyes have been seeking recruits for the overthrow of President Diaz. These agents, he said, wanted him to sign a paper pledging his support to the field on behalf of Reyes in the event that the movement now impending assumes a more definite aspect.

ALL ARMS BOUGHT.

Monterey, Mexico, Aug. 20.—Not a weapon of any kind could be bought

SKIN SCALP

HAIR HANDS

Cleansed Purified and Beautified by CUTICURA SOAP

The constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted when necessary by Cuticura Ointment, not only preserves, purifies and beautifies the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but prevents clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, inflammation, irritation, redness and roughness, and other unwholesome conditions.

All who delight in a clear skin, soft, white hands, a clean, wholesome scalp and live, glossy hair, will find that Cuticura Soap and Ointment realize every expectation.

here today. Half of the men of the town are carrying concealed weapons. Lodges of clandestine Masons, who recognize Gen. Reyes as chief, are preparing a demonstration at the alameda. Trouble is feared.

AMERICANS MURDERING THEIR MOTHER TONGUE

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 21.—That the American people are murdering their mother tongue and one of the great opportunities for reform at the present time is to teach them the English language, was the opinion expressed here by President Faunce of the American colleges in his arraignment and declared they are turning out an alarming proportion of actual illiterates.

"I would like," he said, "to see the colleges of the country unite in an effort to induce the American people to write and speak the English tongue decently. The colleges are not doing it now. Many of our college seniors cannot write a decent business letter. We Americans should link our minds and hearts and hands in an effort to preserve this mother tongue, which is our definite intellectual heritage."

CAPTURED BY SEA LION BUT GLAD TO LET IT GO

Portland, Or., Aug. 21.—Somewhere in Alsea bay swims a giant sea lion, with a few feet of hitching rope attached to its neck.

Yesterday the huge mammal, tied to a buggy by its captor, J. Holgate, refused to be dragged along the beach by a horse, and turning seaward, it made for its element. Holgate, save himself, horse and vehicle, jumped from the rig in the sea lion's power, and cut the rope. He was none too prompt, as his horse and rig, too light to withstand the sea lion's tug, were dangerously near deep water.

The sea lion is estimated to weigh more than a ton and in its bolt for the bay horse, man and buggy, did not seem to be any hindrance to its progress.

WOULD HAVE LANDS DIVIDED

Transmississippi Congress Calls For Segregation of Them Into Agricultural, Mineral, Forest.

ASKS CONGRESS TO MAKE LAW

Ex-Senator Patterson Explains That He Had No Intention of Attacking Gifford Pinchot.

Denver, Aug. 20.—The agitation over the Colorado forest reserves and the activities of Gifford Pinchot broke into open fire before the Transmississippi congress this afternoon, and after a hot debate a resolution calling upon Congress for a law declaring for a division of the agricultural, mineral and forest lands, was passed.

The resolution was the one presented by former Senator Patterson of Colorado. It had been in committee for two days and the feeling was abroad in the congress that it was a covert attack on Pinchot, and this assertion was made on the floor by Frank Gowdy of Denver, who opposed the action.

Mr. Patterson said he had no intention of attacking Mr. Pinchot, and wanted merely a settlement once for all of the Pinchot controversy. In which it has been charged that Mr. Pinchot has overlooked technicalities in reserving forest lands.

Instantly the floor was alive with prospective speakers for and against the resolution, and it continued to be so until Mr. Gowdy offered an amendment commending the forestry policies of the administration. This was accepted by Mr. Patterson, and in turn Mr. Gowdy accepted the Patterson resolution. Both were passed, and this effectively, it is believed, stops the forestry dispute which has been the factor most feared through the session.

The resolutions committee presented a partial report and the clauses on the following subjects were adopted:

That the income tax measure become a law.

That a tariff commission of experts be placed in service.

That Congress pass a law regulating the use of grazing lands.

That Alaska be given a territorial legislature.

That Congress pass a law preventing the collection of federal liquor revenue in prohibition territory.

That aid be extended American shipping.

The principal speaker of the afternoon was Governor Hadley of Missouri, who dealt with the rate question in his state.

Governor Hadley declared that the railway rebates and not the tariff is the mother of trusts. He said that one man was responsible for placing the blame where it belonged and for putting a question on the rate evil of the country. He said that he was not a student of the tariff, but that he was a student of the government ownership of railroads, but he said he had rather see government ownership of railroads than the government owned by the railroads.

He closed his address by declaring that he believed the answer to the question lies in making navigable the great inland waterways.

KING ALFONSO'S WHISKERS.

Queen Victoria and Empress Eugenie Told Him He Looked Like a Butler.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—A special cable from London to the Tribune says: When King Alfonso arrived at San Sebastian from Madrid he was wearing side whiskers and had his hair cut short. The king thought this gave him the appearance of an admiral in the British navy, but Queen Victoria and former Empress Eugenie remarked he looked more like an English butler.

He was urged to shave his whiskers off. He did so, for when he returned to Madrid he was whiskerless once more and looked younger.

ORIGIN OF THE FAMOUS SYMBOL O. K.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Cornelius Kendall, youngest son of Orrin Kendall, from whose initials the use of "O. K." meaning "all right" is said to have sprung, was buried yesterday in Toledo, O., his death having taken place there Sunday.

During the Civil war Mr. Kendall was a member of the firm of O. Kendall & Sons, whose bakery was in Chicago. The firm furnished bread and crackers for the army, and on the crackers were the initials "O. K." These crackers are said to have been the only ones the soldiers relished and their expression, "these are all right," later developed into "these are O. K."

After the war Cornelius Kendall left Chicago and for the past 35 years had been prominently identified with the leading business interests of Toledo.

MANY MISFORTUNES COME TO A BOY HERO

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 21.—Troubles never come singly to John Holland Pone, a 19-year-old Trenton boy who was the hero of the navy in July, 1907, when he saved the battleship Georgia from being blown up by extinguishing a fire near the magazine thereby losing both ears and portions of his left arm.

Soon after recovering from that accident, he was stricken with appendicitis and for weeks his life was despaired of and now he is laid up again at his home as the result of injuries he sustained a few days ago at the camp at Seagirt, where he was stepped upon by a horse.

In spite of Pone's heroism and his terrible injuries he has been able to secure a pension of only $17 a month and he was endeavoring to support himself at Seagirt when the latest accident befell him.

HOW TO MEASURE LENGTHENED WAVES

Washington, Aug. 21.—A puzzling question to all seagoers, that of the lengthened height of ocean waves and how to measure them, is answered by the navy hydrographic office in a recent publication.

Determination of the length of waves at sea may be obtained by direct comparison of the length of the observing vessel with the length from crest to crest of the waves over which she is riding, and when ships are sailing in company, a good estimate of the length of the waves may be made by comparing the known length of a neighboring ship from the distance from crest to crest of the successive waves.

Another method of measuring the length of waves consists in towing a log line astern of a vessel and noting the length of the line when a buoy attached to the after end floats on the next wave crest abaft that on which the stern of the vessel momentarily floats.

Replying to an answer regarding the height of ocean waves, the hydrographic office says its measurements and estimates from mariners and observers at sea indicate that the average height of all the waves running in a gale in the open ocean is about 20 feet.

"About 40 feet," it says, "is a common estimate of the height of the large waves in a severe gale on the North Atlantic and this estimate is really not incompatible with a recorded average of a little more than 20 feet."

CAPT. R. A. CRAWFORD DEAD.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—Capt. Robert A. Crawford, who had charge of the government dredging work in Wilmington harbor, died at his home here. Capt. Crawford had been in the federal service 20 years and was well known along the Mississippi river and other inland waterways. He helped plan the Chicago Columbian exposition.

GENUINE BULL FIGHT IN A ROLLING VESSEL

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—Passengers on board the German ship Edda, which arrived in this port yesterday were the spectators at a real bull fight while the vessel was rolling in a heavy sea. Several Mexican bulls, confined in stalls on the after deck became frightened at the snapping of some alligators traveling with them as fellow passengers and breaking from their stalls commenced a sanguinary battle which did not end until the deck was so slippery with blood that they could not stand on their feet. The biggest bull of the herd was singled out by the others as the special object of attack, and although he flung his assailants off time after time with his mighty horns, he was finally borne to the deck and killed by the repeated goring of his mates.

GIRL SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—Shot while hunting deer in the Derby Hills, near Calabasas, Miss Clara Mueller, a young woman of this city, rode eight miles horseback and was driven 38 miles in an automobile before receiving treatment. The girl's rifle was accidentally discharged and the bullet nearly severed part of her foot.

TOM L. JOHNSON WILL GO AUTO TOURING

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 21.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson will go on a Cleveland affairs today and begin an automobile tour of the eastern states, to last a week or more. In an effort to recuperate his strength, physicians have ordered him to cease all exertions requiring concentrated effort, warning the mayor of impending nervous collapse.

Dr. Martin Friedrich, a close friend of the mayor, said:

"He needs a rest. He must not go into another campaign until he has recovered his good health."

RUEF AND SPRECKELS FIGHT ON NEW GROUND

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The battle between Abe Ruef and Rudolph Spreckels was transferred to a different ground yesterday when the two appeared as rivals in a civil suit. Judge Seawell's court in this city. The two chief actors in San Francisco's graft case are both interested in a block occupied by an amusement company. Spreckels owns part of the land and Ruef has an interest in the lease of the present tenants, the eviction of whom the owners of the land are seeking to secure.
